

Race, Poverty, and Healthcare: Exploring Unnatural Causes

With keynote speaker

Dr. Adewale Troutman,

Director of Louisville Metro
Public Health and Wellness

Saturday October 18th, 2008

From 9:00am to 3:00pm

Church of the Epiphany
914 Old Harrods Creek
Road

Join us for a day to discuss current health issues in the city of Louisville.

What can be done to improve the health of the community?

What role does race and poverty have in health and healthcare?

Workshop Schedule

9:00 – 9:30 Registration
9:30- 10:00 Opening Prayer –
Welcome to the workshop
10:00-12:00 Keynote Speaker: Dr.
Troutman
12:00-12:45 Lunch
12:45- 3:00 Breakout sessions:
You choose two of the following.

Breakout groups will include:

- Personal stories of immigrant and refugee access to healthcare
- What the bishops say about race, poverty, and healthcare
- Poor women moving toward independence challenge the healthcare system
- The Louisville Center for Health Equity: Are there unnatural causes in our local

Registration Form

Race, Poverty, and Healthcare:
Exploring Unnatural Causes

Name _____

Address _____

E-mail _____

Phone _____

Lunch and Registration Fee - $10.00

Number attending: ____

Vegetarian Lunch: Yes ___ No ___

Spanish Translation requested? Yes ___

Childcare Registration- Ages 3-12

No charge – Please provide a snack and lunch for each child

Name _____ Age ____

Name _____ Age ____

Name _____ Age ____

Deadline for Registration:

Friday, October 3rd

Make Check Payable To:

Church of Epiphany
914 Old Harrods Creek Road
Louisville, KY 40223